CHINAMAN TELLS STORY OF CRIME

Chung Sin Describes Murder of Elsie Sigel.

BRUTAL IN ITS BLUNTNESS

Tale of the Tragedy as Told by the Celestial Who Witnessed It From an Adjoining Room—Hearers Horrified at Narrative of Man Who Saw the Girl Slain Without Attempting to Save Her.

Johnstown, Pa., June 23.—An Americanized Chinaman who alighted in Johnstown from a westbound Pennsylvania railroad passenger train is believed by local officers to be Leon Ling, the alleged murderer of Elsie Sigel. The Chinaman cannot be found.

New York, June 23.—Baited and intimidated by detectives, threatened with prosecution and confused with rapid-fire questions, Chung Sin, one-time roommate of Leon Ling, told of Elsie Sigel's murder. Under the terrific pressure of the "third degree," the little Chinaman admitted that he had seen the body in Leon Ling's room, that he had touched it while it was still warm, that he had smelled drugs and had watched Leon Ling's preparations for placing the body in the trunk where it was found horribly decomposed last Friday night.

Chung Sin, in fact, if what was learned at the criminal courts building is correct, described almost everything concerning the murder of Major General Franz Sigel's granddaughter. He denied any implication in it and protested stoutly that he was ignorant of the whereabouts of Ling, the supposed murderer. After the inquisition he was taken before Coroner Harburger and held in $10,000 bail in the house of detention to await the inquest.

Tells Story of Girl's Death.

Chung Sin is thirty-five years old and a native of Canton. He was arrested Monday morning at West Galway, N. Y., a small hamlet near Amsterdam, and was brought to New York. Immediately after his arrest upstate and all during the trip by train to this city, he was plied with questions, bullied, persuaded and entangled in a mass of significant questions. It was not until his arriving here, however, that his spirit was sufficiently broken or sufficient inducements were offered, as the case may be, for him to cast aside his air of stolidness and tell of the death of the young missionary. Then, smoking cigarette after cigarette to quiet his nerves, the Chinaman told brokenly, but with brutal bluntness, of the girl's death.

He was surrounded at the time in the office of Assistant District Attorney Ward by detectives from police headquarters, who previously had put him through a grilling. Mr. Ward and District Attorney Jerome also were present and from what can be learned it was Mr. Jerome himself who finally drew the story from Chung Sin's lips. He was told that Leon Ling had been captured and had laid the blame upon his (Chung Sin's) shoulders. This, together with the persistent hammering at the prisoner, brought the confession. It was made partly in English and partly in Chinese, for these was an interpreter present, and was taken down by stenographers. No statement of the gist of his remarks was made public, but the more salient points of the confession soon became known about the building.

Drugged and Then Choked to Death.

From the man's story it is apparent that Elsie Sigel was first drugged with chloroform and then choked to death. She was killed apparently on the night of June 9, although Chung Sin appeared a little mixed in his dates. But he says that early in the morning of June 10 he heard a strange noise in Leon's room, adjoining his, and, looking over the transom, saw the girl lying on the bed with a bloody towel over her mouth. He passed through the room, he said, to go out to wash his hands and as he did so felt of the body, which was still warm. Afterward he went down to the chop suey restaurant below and then returned to the room. Leon, in the meantime, had covered the body with a blanket up to the chin and had pulled a trunk to the middle of the floor. The trunk Leon was calmly emptying, preparatory to placing the body therein. The rope with which the body was bound was lying on the floor at the time, according to Chung Sin. Once again he went down stairs, said Chung Sin, where he remained until Leon called him. When he entered the room the body was not visible, having been bound with the rope and placed in the trunk.

At this point of the story the Chinaman was asked savagely if he had not assisted in putting the body in the trunk. Chung Sin started perceptibly, but said that he had had no hand in it. "I didn't see her no more," said Chung Sin, "and when I asked Leon how she died, he said she had bitten her tongue and bled to death."

Leon told him, Chung Sin added, that he was going to send the trunk to Jersey City, thence to Europe. As a matter of fact, it lay untouched in the stuffy little room until Sun Leung, proprietor of the restaurant below, noticed the odor about the building and summoned the police.

More of Chung Sin's confession became known later, giving the actual description of how the murder was committed.

"Elsie Sigel, the girl, was on the bed," said the Chinaman, while his hearers drew closer in horrified suspense, "and Leon he was bending over her. A handkerchief was sticking out of her mouth and I saw the blood on it. She was fighting with him, but he only pressed the handkerchief harder into her mouth. Finally she struggled no more and lay still, and Leon stood up and looked down at her."

Those who heard this recital were almost overcome with the thought that Chung Sin could have stood by in an adjoining room without raising a hand to prevent it.

In one version of the Chinaman's confession it is said he admitted helping Leon Ling tie the trunk, although denying that he aided him in placing the body in it. He also admitted giving most of the money which he borrowed from Chu Gain to Leon Ling to aid the latter in his flight from New York.

PRODUCTION IS A GREAT SUCCESS

"Maid of Orleans" Presented in Harvard Stadium.

Cambridge, Mass., June 23.—The experiment of producing Schiller's "Maid of Orleans" beneath starry skies with close approach to the historic detail surrounding the bright figure of the Fifteenth century was carried out with success in the extensive arena of the Harvard stadium by Miss Maude Adams and a company numbering about 2,000 persons. The performance was undertaken for the benefit of the Germania museum of Harvard and the greater part of the working force of the Frohman syndicate was actively engaged in the production.

More than 15,000 persons, massed tier on tier, saw the performance. The beauty of Schiller's lines and the magnitude of the plan of reproduction combined to make the few hours in the stadium a period of intense pleasure. The historic perspective was skillfully maintained throughout, from the little pastoral scene in Johanna's father's home with the flocks of living sheep and actual trees of the forest, to the splendor of the French court, the clash of the English and French arms, the coronation pageant and the death scene in the cathedral.

The motley crowds of serfs and valets were made up of Harvard students. Men of the state militia marched as archers and spearmen in the French and English armies.

Miss Adams was accorded an ovation at the end of the performance.

CONFERENCE AT WHITE HOUSE

Discusses Proposed Tax Upon Corporations.

MANY CHANGES SUGGESTED

Amendment to the Tariff Bill Drawn Up by Attorney General Wickersham
Submitted to Senate and House Leaders, Who Propose Several Changes in the Provisions of the Measure.

Washington, June 23.—Details of the proposed measure for the taxation of net earnings of corporations were arranged at the most important conference that has been held at the White House since Mr. Taft assumed the presidency.

There were present as the president's guests at dinner Attorney General Wickersham and Senator Root, who are charged with the task of drafting the measure; Secretary of State Knox, Senators Aldrich, Burrows, Penrose, Hale, Cullom, Flint, Smoot, McCumber and Lodge, constituting the Republican membership of the senate finance committee; Speaker Cannon, Representative Payne, chairman of the house committee on ways and means, and Representative John Dwight of New York, the Republican whip of the house.

The statesmen sat down to dinner in the state dining room. No business was discussed at the dinner, but for two hours afterward the corporation tax measure, which had been prepared in the form of an amendment to the tariff bill, was viewed from every angle. Many changes from the form in which it was placed were suggested and not a few of these were declared to be wise. The result was that the carefully prepared copies given to each member of the party by Attorney General Wickersham were returned to him at the end of the conference.

President Taft himself suggested that the copies should not be taken by the members of the party until the amendment had been perfected. All agreed not to make the form of the amendment public until it is ready to be introduced in the senate as a finance committee amendment to the tariff bill.

Terms of the Measure.

The terms of the measure as finally agreed upon, although not yet whipped into form, provide that all corporations having capital stock and organized for profit shall pay a tax of 2 per cent on the net earnings. Corporations coming within that designation will be compelled to make returns to specially named agents of the bureau of internal revenue of the treasury department, giving the amount of their gross receipts, capital stock, bonded indebtedness and all other visible debts.

Separated from these returns the corporations will be compelled to report the amount of their net receipts after deducting their general and ordinary expenses, interest on bonds up to the amount of the capital stock of the corporation, interest on notes and other forms of tangible indebtedness, and any actual loss that may have been incurred in business, which loss was not made up by insurance, salvage or other form of returns.

The amendment will define in the broadest possible way the character of losses which may be deducted from the net earnings upon which the tax is to be collected. These losses will include bad accounts of a mercantile corporation, losses upon securities held by banks, uncollectable notes and all other forms of bad debts which are usually charged to profit and loss accounts.

As has been stated before the 2 per cent tax will apply to all corporations organized for profit, but each corporation will be allowed a $5,000 exemption, which means that the tax will not be collected except upon earnings in excess of $5,000.

Any corporation which makes a false report to an agent of the bureau of internal revenue will be subject to a penalty.

Mutiny on a Count's Yacht.

Saint Tropez, France, June 23.—The crew of Count Obermuller's yacht mutinied and attacked the count with revolvers. The latter returned the fire in self-defense, killing a sailor. The police, attracted by the fusillade, boarded the yacht and placed the mutineers under arrest.

Cholera in Finland.

Helsingfors, June 23.—Cholera has made its appearance in Finland, the first case registered being in Abo province. It is believed the disease was carried from Russia.

COMPARED WITH LEOPOLD

Abdul Hamid Said to Be a Christian Gentleman.

New York, June 23.—A suggestion that the state department at Washington has secret reports from the American consul in the Congo Free State which, if published, would create such a storm of indignation here that an end would soon be put to reported outrages, was made by John Daniels of Boston, secretary of the Congo Reform association, to the Pan-Presbyterian council.

The delegates of the council discussed conditions in the Congo and especially protested against the treatment of the two American missionaries there, Rev. Dr. W. M. Morrison and Rev. Dr. W. H. Sheppard, who were recently indicted for libel. It was proposed in the meeting that Secretary of State Knox should make immediate demands upon the Belgian government for a fair trial of the missionaries and a restoration of the rights of the Congo natives. During the discussion of the question it was said by one delegate that "Abdul Hamid is a Christian gentleman compared with King Leopold of Belgium."

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF

Aged Minnesota Farmer Commits Double Crime.

Preston, Minn., June 23.—Bendik Bendikson, a farmer residing seven miles southeast of this place, shot and killed his wife and when the coroner and sheriff arrived at the house, shot himself and died instantly.

The suicide and his victim were both upwards of seventy years old. Bendikson is supposed to have suddenly lost his mind.

The aged couple were much addicted to bickering between themselves, neighbors say.

BOLD ROBBERY OF A BANK IN TEXAS

Lane Bandit Gets Over Eight Thousand Dollars.

Fort Worth, Tex., June 23.—A highwayman, described as genteel in appearance, robbed the branch banking house of the Wagoner Bank and Trust company in the downtown district of Fort Worth of $8,100 in currency, made his escape and has so far succeeded in evading searching parties of police and citizens.

The robbery was the most daring attempted in Texas in years. The police reached the scene five minutes later, but the stranger had disappeared. At the time of the robbery several hundred persons were in the vicinity of the building and many noted the arrival at the bank and the departure of the man, but his manner was bland and attracted no special attention.

MURDERER'S BODY IS FOUND

Illinois Man Who Killed His Wife Committed Suicide.

Moline, Ill., June 23.—The dead body of Thomas Adams, a wealthy pioneer resident of Rapid City, near here, who killed his wife Monday and disappeared, was found in a clover field near his home. He had ended his own life with a bullet.

The murder of Mrs. Adams was particularly brutal. She had been badly beaten and her nose was broken before her husband shot her. The body was found by a married daughter and as Adams was missing he was immediately suspected. Evidence before the coroner's jury to the effect that the couple had quarrelled almost constantly for thirty years lent color to the theory that Adams was the murderer.

It is said Adams often threatened to kill his wife and himself.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1909.

FROM present appearances Brainerd will have a safe and sane Fourth of July.

A LOCAL exchange says that diptheria at Cloquet has closed the Swedish Lutheran church and the Bijou theatre.

AND now Tawney, the Winona statesman, is being mentioned for governor.
There is time enough to "mention favorably" all the prominent politicians in the state before the time to select the real candidate arrives.

THE published statement that dancing makes girl's feet large and that ice cream soda makes freckles will not do the business. The average Brainerd girl believes in both and as she is from Missouri it is not expected that the receipts will show a decrease in either case even if some man is mean enough to circulate the report.

JULY 4th falls on Sunday this year and it gives those so inclined a chance for a three days celebration. Many towns with near by neighbors are planning to celebrate on the 3d in order that they may take in the attractions at the larger towns on the 5th. The state law fixes the legal holiday in cases of this kind on the day following Sunday and it will be observed in Brainerd on Monday the 5th.

AT Aitkin over 4,000 acres of land were disposed of at the state land sale, the best sale the state auditor has held this year. Aitkin county is being greatly benefitted by the mining activities on the Cuyuna range, in general with the country adjacent, and an indication of the prosperity is the fact that the railroad business at that point for May increased $2,000 over the same month last year.

A NEW political club has been launched in Minnesota to be known as the John Erickson Republican League.
This ought to give Frank Day and his political boss the shivers. The details were arranged at a dinner given by Lieut. Gov. Eberhart in April and have just been made public. It is said the object is not to boom Eberhart for governor but to reclaim the Swedish vote for the republican party.

THE Border Budget, a weekly publication at International Falls, passes out of existence with the current issue.
The newspaper business is probably overdone to a larger extent than any other line and while the evidence of prosperity appears from week to week only the business manager, the man behind the bank account, knows the trials and tribulations of making both ends meet and in seeing that the "ghost walks" every Saturday night. Consolidation in over crowded newspaper towns has been prevalent during the past year in the northwest resulting in better service to the public and considerable more satisfaction to the publishers.

IF IT is a business proposition for the merchant to get his envelopes printed by the government because he can get them cheaper, why is it not a good business proposition for the newspaper men and all others to send to Chicago to the catalogue houses for their groceries and dry goods, says an exchange.
The proposition sounds reasonable, but the merchant will not agree that it is good logic, even if he is a patron of the government printing office to the exclusion of his home paper to which he looks for weekly criticisms on the people who send their money to Sears, Roebuck & Co., instead of spending it at home with the merchants who pay taxes and help keep things going in the right channel. Queer world, isn't it.

THE member of the legislature from Elk River, Representative Davis, seems to strike a responsive chord when he says "if the injunction proceedings to prevent the distribution of the state road and bridge fund prove successful there is no question but that similar proceedings will be brought to tie up the appropriations by the legislature for improvements at the state fair grounds and the capitol approach. The country people feel very bitter over this matter, many of them so strongly that we have been urged to begin action at once. The expenditure of the road and bridge fund is a great benefit to people using the highways and the work should be encouraged. It is more important to the state than a grandstand at a race course and parks around the state capitol. We voted $200,000 for a stand at the fair grounds and the next legislature will be asked to appropriate $400,000 or $500,000 for a new main building. There will be strong opposition in any event, and if the good roads fund is abolished, these matters are sure to be tied up."

SPEAKS OF MINERAL RESERVE

Mr. Iverson Explained the Terms of Present Law Regarding State Lands

Samuel G. Iverson, auditor of the state of Minnesota, was in Brainerd Tuesday and conducted the annual sale of state lands. There were about 600 acres of land sold, which was much more than was anticipated by Mr. Iverson. The fact that mineral rights are reserved not only deters any buying with speculative intent, but actually retards the sale for agricultural purposes, as the would-be farmer often fears that just as he gets his farm well cleared and his buildings erected the state will negotiate a lease on the minerals and the owner will be ousted from possession.

In speaking of the matter while in Brainerd Mr. Iverson said that there was evidently some misapprehension on the part of the public as to the provisions of the law under which the mineral is reserved.

Under the law enacted in 1907, and which is now in force, the situation is practically in the hands of the owner of the surface rights. This law, which was framed under the supervision of Mr. Iverson, provides that when any party secures a lease on mineral land he must, before going on to do any mining or prospecting, negotiate with the owner of the surface as to terms, conditions, etc. In the event that they cannot agree then the matter is to be submitted to arbitration. Mr. Iverson believes that where this is thoroughly understood there will be little if any effect in the way of deterring the purchase by bona fide residents.

Mr. Iverson stated that about 4,000 acres of land was sold in Aitkin county on Monday. He and his assistant went from here to Walker to hold a sale there

Weigh Yourself Before Eating

Weigh yourself before commencing to use Samose, the great flesh forming food. The wonderful sale on this preparation since first introduced in Brainerd and the remarkable results following its use have made H. P. Dunn such enthusiastic believers in the great value of Samose that he gives his personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose will not make thin people fat and restore strength and health to those who use it.

This is a strong guarantee, but H. P. Dunn has seen so many of his customers who a few weeks ago looked like walking skeletons become plump and well, solely through the use of Samose that he feels he cannot say too much to induce people to try it.

This marvelous flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, makes good rich blood, tones up the weakened system, helps to assimilate the food and makes the user plump, well and rosy.

Minutes and Seconds.

At least twenty-five centuries before Christ the Babylonians used a sexagesimal system of notation, consisting of sari and soss, of which we have vestiges when we reckon 60 minutes to the hour and 60 seconds to the minute, or 3,600 seconds—that is, a saros of soss—to the hour. That we count 12 inches to the foot, 24 hours to the day, 360 degrees of longitude around the equator, 90 degrees of latitude from the equator to the poles and 60 miles to a degree may also be traced to the same duodecimal Babylonian system of numeration, which originally reckoned 60 shekels to the mina and 60 minas to the talent. All these numbers are factors or multiples of the saros, or 60. Our measures of time, money, of linear and angular space are all derived from the Babylonians, who obtained them from the Babylonians, probably through the Phoenicians.

E. K. WOODIN CONVICTED

Jury Found Him Guilty of Conducting an Unlicensed Drinking Place at Emily

The jury in the case of the State of Minnesota against E. K. Woodin, charged with conducting an unlicensed drinking place at Emily was out a short time yesterday and brought in a verdict of guilty.

Judge Wright this morning sentenced Mr. Woodin to pay a fine of $75 and the costs of prosecution and to serve 90 days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended upon prompt payment of the fine and costs and conditioned on future good behavior. On motion of the county attorney the other cases pending against Mr. Woodin were dismissed. The cases against Wm. Sinclair and Thomas Beare, appeals from the municipal court of Brainerd, were continued for the term at the request of A. D. Polk, attorney for those gentlemen, because of the fact that he is engaged in the waterworks condemnation hearing.

The jury was dismissed this forenoon and Judge Wright this afternoon took up the court cases.

NELSON GETS THE DECISION

Referee Stops the Fight in the Fifth Round.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 23.—Battling Nelson was awarded the decision against Jack Clifford in the fifth round of what was to have been a fifteen-round bout.

Referee Dave Porteus then stopped the fight when Clifford had been knocked down by a heavy jab in the stomach. He said he feared Clifford would be hurt and the authorities interfere. Clifford arose after the count of five, however, and demanded that the fight continue.

The abrupt ending of the match angered the crowd of about 4,000, which hissed and jeered the fighters. The disappointed fans crowded about the box office demanding that their money be refunded.

MAKING A TEST OF PRESSURE

Appraisers Witnessed Tests of the Streams of Water this Afternoon

The condemnation hearing is still dragging along. Judd Wright was on the stand again most of the forenoon, the attorneys putting him through a long series of questions covering a wide range of information concerning the efficiency of the plant, the revenues, etc. This afternoon the appraisers witnessed some actual tests of the force of water thrown through fire hose.

Judd Wright was on the witness stand before the appraisers in the condemnation proceedings during the entire afternoon Tuesday. In addition to testifying as to the pressure carried at the pumphouse, as shown by the daily gauge records placed in evidence, he identified the duplicate copies of the reports made by him as superintendent of the plant to Mr. Tighe, the president of the Minnesota Waterworks company. In round numbers the gross revenue of the plant last year was about $25,000. Mr. Wright testified that he was unable to state the net revenue of the plant as many of the bills were paid through the St. Paul office of the company and he had no record of the total expenditures.

Ambrose Tighe has been subpoenaed to appear before the board of appraisers and will identify and certify to the correctness of a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the plant, which will be placed in evidence by the defendants. Mr. Tighe will, it is expected appear before the appraisers tomorrow.

Blotting Pads and Secrets.

The ability to read backward what has been impressed on a blotting pad and the secrets which the latter will yield when reflected in a mirror are dangers against which the foreign office has its precautions. It was the last place where pepper casters of sand were used to dry the written word, and for a time black blotting paper was specially manufactured and used, but it was found not to be absolutely mark proof, so that absorbent rollers were introduced for blotting diplomatic documents. When such a roller has been run over letters sideways and up and down a few times, to decipher its impression would defy even Sherlock Holmes.—London Chronicle.

WHAT KIDNEYS DO

Their Unceasing Work Keeps us
Strong and Healthy

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy parts of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Oscar Opgaard, living at 611 S. Tenth St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I speak from experience when I say Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective in removing backache and regulating the action of the kidney secretions. Some time ago I procured this remedy from H. P. Dunn's drug store, and from the excellent results obtained from its use, I am thoroughly convinced that Doan's Kidney Pills did all that is claimed for them in my case."

PYTHIAN FESTIVAL

The Greatest Event in Pythian History in the Northwest will be Celebrated July 1st

Thursday afternoon, July 1st, will be a red letter day in Pythian circles of the northwest at which time the Twin City Pythian Festival will be held in Minneapolis, and the local lodge Knights of Pythias of this city are planning on sending a large delegation to attend the festivities, the details of which will be discussed this (Wednesday) evening at their lodge meeting. The justly celebrated Iola Knight Rank Team, on their way to the Seattle exposition, will spend one day at the meeting and will exemplify the rank of Knight on the evening of the first day. This will be the great climax of the festival, and as only Knights will be admitted all must go prepared to show his official receipt. The team will show, besides the ritualistic work, the matchless drills of their four color guards which have added so much to their fame and glory. Thousands will attend and every subordinate lodge within a radius of a hundred miles or more will send large delegations. A grand parade will take place on July 1st in the afternoon preceding the festival matinee, and all the local lodges, including the Uniform Rank, visiting lodges, Knights, Iola Team will participate. It will be an occasion that every Knight will wish to attend.

FOR PUBLIC UTILITIES

Has Granted Easements Therefor
to J. C. Johnson

Four easements have been filed in the office of the register of deeds, all running from the Cuyuna Range Townsite Co. to J. C. Johnson, of St. Louis county, and covering the first addition to the town of Deerwood. These easements grant Johnson the use of the streets and alleys of the town for the purpose of establishing public utilities. One covers telephone lines and poles; one is for gas and water mains; one for an electric light plant with necessary poles and wires and the third is for street railway purposes. The easements are subject to such regulation as may be imposed by any municipal corporation hereafter erected or created having jurisdiction over the land described or any part of it.

Obituary

J. A. Wood, of Memphis, Tenn., died Wednesday morning, June 16, at the Presbyterian hospital of an abscess of the brain, aged 35 years eight months and 24 days.

He was born in Temple, Texas, Bell county, October 23, 1874.

His brother Ellington Wood and sister, Miss Millie Wood came and took the remains to Temple for interment in their family lot. Services and burial Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

He was married in Brainerd, Minn., November 24, 1897, to Miss Lizzie Rosenkranz. To them were born two sons, Wm. A. and Leslie B., age 11 and nine years.

VICTORY FOR THE PLAINTIFF

Mrs. Gould Wins a Point in Suit for Separation.

AT EXPENSE OF HER HUSBAND

Katherine Clemmons Gould Allowed an Additional Counsel Fee of Ten Thousand Dollars—Several Witnesses Testify to the Plaintiff's Sobriety on All Occasions That They Could Recall.

New York, June 23.—While counsel for Katherine Clemmons Gould brought up a reinforcement of witnesses in one part of the supreme court to combat the charges of intoxication and misconduct made by the defense in her suit for separation with alimony from her husband, Howard Gould, the plaintiff won a victory in another part of the court by a decision of Justice Geigerich. He ruled that Mrs. Gould shall be allowed an additional counsel fee of $10,000 at the expense of her husband.

An allowance of $5,000 was made to Mrs. Gould last fall for the prosecution of her suit.

While this financial feature was being decided, Justice Dowling continued to hear the case proper. Hotel proprietor and hotel manager who denied knowledge of any undue intimacy between Mrs. Gould and Dustin Farnum, the actor, as the defense alleges; employees of Castle Gould, members of the crew of the Gould yacht Niagara, hotel chefs, hairdressers and seamstresses who testified to Mrs. Gould's sobriety on all occasions that they could recall, constituted the bulk of the testimony of the reserve forces which were called by Mrs. Gould's lawyer. There are thirty or more such witnesses to be called.

COMES TO A SUDDEN HALT

Trial of Alleged Black Hand Murderer Interrupted.

Chicago, June 23.—The trial of Joseph Bertucci, an alleged Black Hand murderer, came to a sudden halt in Judge Windes' court here when an Italian entered the courtroom and waved a handkerchief at Bruno Nardi, the star witness for the state, who had just taken the stand to tell of the murder.

The unknown Italian fled from the courtroom after giving his signal of warning. Detectives ran after him, but could not find him. Nardi refused to answer any more questions put to him by the prosecutor, saying that he would be killed if he testified against Bertucci. The same fear was expressed by Nardi's wife, also a material witness, and the prosecutor was forced to adjourn the trial.

Bertucci and Nardi were arrested after the killing of Vito Umbrello in an alley Jan. 23. Umbrello is said to have been murdered because of his refusal to heed letters demanding money sent him by the two Italians.

Pittsburg, June 23.—An ironworker fell dead while at work and an even score of prostrations were reported, due to heat.

Boston, June 23.—One death and sixteen prostrations due to the heat were recorded here.

REACHES THE VOTING STAGE

Senate Disposes of Amendments to the Hide Schedule.

Washington, June 23.—The senate reached the voting stage on the hide schedule and after several amendments had been defeated the amendment of the finance committee fixing a duty of 15 per cent ad valorem on hides was agreed to by the vote of 46 to 30.

This is the rate of the present law, but under the rulings of the treasury department is applicable only to hides weighing more than twenty-five pounds.

The house placed all hides on the free list, but the committee restored the Dingley policy of adding them to the dutiable list. The senate sustained its committee.

Senator McLaurin undertook to have the provision amended so as to make the duty applicable to hides weighing less than twenty-five pounds, but failed, his amendment being voted down, 31 to 48. An amendment by Mr. Stone placing not only hides, but many of their products on the free list, was also lost.

Edward Everett Hale, the Patriot

Glowing Tributes to the Memory and Achievements of the Late Veteran Chaplain of the United States Senate. Famous Writer and Scholar.

By GEORGE H. PICARD.

At a Harvard banquet given at the national capital the late Dr. Edward Everett Hale, who had recently become chaplain of the United States senate, responding to a toast, said: "It is not possible for me to go into a town of any size in the length and breadth of the United States and attempt to register at a hotel without some friend coming up and insisting that my bag be sent up to his house and taking me there himself with the care and affection of a brother."

Of course this remarkable statement was uttered at an alumni dinner, and the fraternal spirit among those who have been educated at Harvard is as potent as that of any other band of alumni, but in this instance there was a deeper significance to the venerable man's words. Universal affection for Edward Everett Hale rested on other grounds than mere fidelity to alma mater and was given by a wider band of tribute bringers—the people of the United States. There was no public spirited and intelligent citizen of the country who would not have esteemed it a special honor to substitute the hospitality of his own vine and fig tree for that of the hotel, even though he had carried the doctor's bag in his own hands.

For he was a man of whom the right minded American citizen should be exceedingly proud. He was a grand old man in the fullest significance of the term. He was a many sided man to a remarkable degree, but throughout his long life the dominant note of his character was patriotism—militant and his mother devoted much time to translating from the German. Edward was precocious, and there is small wonder. It has been said of him that his early life was fed on culture liquefied with printer's ink. At the age of eleven he translated from the French an article on "Excavations at Nineveh" and did it remarkably well. That of itself is fair evidence that his gray matter had begun to dominate at an early age. At thirteen he was prepared to enter Harvard, and he was graduated from that institution at the age of seventeen.

Dr. Hale remained long enough in the office of the Advertiser to demonstrate the fact that he was a first class newspaper man. When he went into the ministry the newspaper fraternity realized that it had lost a shining light. Samuel Bowles of the Springfield Republican was moved to say that "they had only one good journalist in all Boston, and they are spolling him in the pulpit."

In his native city, April 3, 1902, upon the occasion of his eightieth birthday, a great public demonstration was made in Dr. Hale's honor. It was at that meeting that Mr. Roosevelt's enthusiastic tribute was read. It came in the form of a letter to the late Senator Hoar, who presided. It was on this occasion that the ex-president compared Dr. Hale to the general who had done so much for the Greeks. In his own speech Senator Hoar told the story of his friend's career in a few well chosen sentences.

Senator Hoar's Tribute.

Dr. Hale has done a good many things in his own matchless fashion. He would have left a remarkable name and fame patriotism. That alone, coupled with his mighty activity, should be sufficient to immortalize him, but there is enough besides to do that over and over again.

For many years Dr. Hale remained almost alone as a monument to the mighty intellectual forces that made so potentially for the welfare of the United States in the last century. It is little wonder that on a certain occasion Theodore Roosevelt should have been moved to declare that the venerable Bostonian was the Timoleon of the day. Now, when one recalls who Timoleon was—that ancient Greek worthy who, according to Plutarch, performed greater things for his country than any other man of his time—it becomes evident that the ex-president was not niggardly in his praise.

It was during the trying days of the civil war that Dr. Hale came to the front. Long previous to that time he had made for himself a host of admirers in New England, but in December, 1863, there appeared in the Atlantic Monthly the opening chapters of a story that carried its author's name to the uttermost regions of the earth. "The Man Without a Country" was an irresistible appeal to patriotism. Its power as a breeder of patriotism was felt all over the common country and extended to foreign lands.

Dr. Hale came from a famous New England family. Its founder in America was the Rev. John Hale, who in 1697 published a pamphlet entitled "A Modest Inquiry into the Nature of Witchcraft." This quaint essay is instinct with the keen wisdom and characteristic humor of the race. The famous Nathan Hale was another ancestor, and the father of Dr. Hale was his namesake. His mother was a sister of the renowned orator Edward Everett.

Harvard Graduate at Seventeen.

Young Hale was brought up in a literary atmosphere. His father was publisher of the Boston Advertiser, behind him if he had been nothing but a student and narrator of history as he has studied and told of it; if he had been nothing but a writer of fiction—author of "The Man Without a Country" or "The Times One Is Ten" or "In His Name"—if he had done nothing but organize the Lend a Hand clubs now found in the four quarters of the world; if he had been nothing but an eloquent Christian preacher; if he had been nothing but a beloved pastor; if he had been only a voice which lifted to heaven in prayer the souls of great congregations; if he had been only a public spirited citizen, active and powerful in every good word and work for the benefit of this people; if he had been only remembered as the spiritual friend and comforter of large numbers of men and women who were desolate and stricken by poverty and sorrow; if he had been only a zealous lover of his country, comprehending as scarcely any other man has comprehended the true spirit of the American people. If he had been only one of these things it would be enough to satisfy the most generous aspiration of any man, enough to make his life worth living for himself and his race. And yet do I exaggerate one particle when I say that Dr. Hale has been all these and more?

Edward Everett Hale has been the interpreter of a pure, simple, loving and living faith to thousands of souls. He has taught us that the fatherhood and tenderness of God are manifested here and now in this world, as they will be hereafter; that the religion of Christ is a religion of daily living; that salvation is the purifying of the soul from sin, not its escape from the consequences of sin. He is the representative and the incarnation of the best and loftiest Americanism. He knows the history of his country and knows his countrymen through and through. He does not fancy that he loves his country while he dislikes and despises his countrymen and everything they have done and are doing. The history he loves and has helped to write and to make is not the history of a base and mean people who have drifted by accident into empire. It is the history of such a nation as Milton conceived, led and guided by men whom Milton would have loved. He will have a high and permanent place in literature which none but Defoe shares. He possesses the two rarest of gifts—that to give history the fascination of fiction and that to give fiction the verisimilitude of history. He has been the minister of comfort in sorrow and of joy in common life to countless persons to whom his friendship is among their most precious blessings or by whose friends he sits, personally unknown, yet a perpetual and welcome guest.

JAMES B. GENTRY A FREE MAN

Former Actor Released From Pennsylvania Penitentiary.

Philadelphia, June 23.—After serving fourteen years in the penitentiary for the murder in this city in 1895 of Madge Yorke, an actress in the "Baggage Check" company, James B. Gentry, a former actor, walked out of the Eastern penitentiary this morning a free man. His pardon, which had been recommended by the pardon board on June 17, was signed in Harrisburg at noon yesterday by Governor Stuart and was forwarded to this city by special delivery. Although Gentry was nervously anxious to again breathe the air of freedom, he gave up hope of being released before 9 o'clock this morning and retired about 11 o'clock last night. At midnight a deputy warden received the pardon and, having been given instructions by Warden McKenty to release Gentry as soon as the pardon reached the penitentiary, went at once to the cell occupied by the pardoned man. Gentry was sound asleep. When aroused he could not control his emotion and wept as the officer passed him the pardon. After washing and dressing himself and bidding farewell to his attendants, Gentry was ushered out of the penitentiary accompanied by Police Lieutenant Hugh Blaney and Constable James J. Cummings. To the waiting newspaper men, Gentry said that he did not feel like talking this morning, but would see them later in the day.

TRY TO BEAT THE BRITONS

American Polo Team Seeking International Honors in England.

London, June 23.—Today's game between the crack American polo team which has invaded England with the understood but not expressed purpose of taking home the international championship and the best players that Great Britain can produce has engaged the attention of the entire British sport loving world. The Britons are anxious to see whether the Yankees can produce four men able to compete on even terms with Britons in a game that has long been regarded as peculiarly British.

If any four American polo players can take home the international trophy they are the four who will ride and hit the ball in today's match. They are Harry Payne Whitney, "Monte" Waterbury, Lawrence Waterbury and Devereux Milburn, known on both sides of the Atlantic as daring and skillful players of the ancient game. They have brought their own ponies with them to England and are confident of breaking the long string of defeats of American polo players at the hands of the Britons.

The first international match was played at Newport a score of years ago. In 1902 at the queen's jubilee a determined effort was made for international honors by a team which included the two Waterbury brothers who are playing today, but it failed to recapture the trophy which the English players won at Newport.

TURKISH FORCES DEFEATED

Albanian Insurgents Victorious in Sanguinary Conflict.

Vienna, June 23.—It is reported from Uskup, European Turkey, that General Djavid Pasha has suffered a serious defeat at the hands of 14,000 Albanian insurgents near Petch, in a vain attempt to dislodge them from a narrow pass. The Turkish loss is estimated at 14 officers and 350 men killed or wounded. Among those killed was the Young Turk leader, Kiamil Bey.

Bad Temper—Wrong Food

Hard To Be Pleasant With Sour Stomach or Aching Head.

No man is proud of a poor day's work. No man prides himself on a nasty exhibition of temper. No woman wishes for a foul breath or a sallow complexion or for a perspiration with offensive odor. Yet you, dear reader, may have all these. Our friends do not always tell us of our physical shortcomings—they bear with us and excuse our faults. Know Thyself. Health spells success and happiness. Ill health makes many a man and woman misunderstood. Drugs, impure air, darkness, bad water, bad food, or good food mixed badly—all injure the body because they set up destructive chemical processes.

E-C Corn Flakes or Eggs-O-See Wheat Flakes are good foods—neither will mix badly in the stomach. A breakfast of these crisp, delicious, tasty flakes with cream or milk and fruit starts the day right, and often these sensible breakfasts have restored to normal a physical frame racked by the poisons of rich, heavy foods that sour and destroy instead of digest and build up.

Remember it is only the famous Eggs-O-See process that makes E-C Corn Flakes and Eggs-O-See Wheat Flakes so delicious and healthful.

Had Proved It.

We had outspanned the wagons on the veldt between Frieska and Kenhard. The donkeys had been driven to the veldt, and we, my friend and myself, were talking in the "taal" to a Dutchman named Gert Maans about the wonders of the universe.

We mentioned that the world was round. Maans said that he knew it. So this answer was unusual for a Boer, so we asked him how he knew. He replied:

"I started to ride to Poortje one dark night through the veldt, and I rode hard all the night, and next morning I found myself at the place I started from, so I know the world is round because I rode round it."—London Standard.

Dozen Italians Killed.

St. Gall, Switzerland, June 23.—Twelve Italian laborers engaged in railway work were killed by asphyxiation in a fire near here. Many others were severely injured.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical remedy, which acts directly on the mucous membrane of the throat, nose, and lungs. The latter—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is a general tonic, which acts on the entire system, strengthening the nerves, all tissue, and all blood elements. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, cures nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well
